Section A1 - General statement of intent

The Print Data Solutions organisation recognises its statutory duty under the Health and Safety at Work etc Act 1974.

Therefore, this policy, is So Far As is Reasonably Practicable (SFARP), to ensure that the organisation provides and maintains safe and healthy working conditions, safe equipment, and systems of work for all our employees, and to provide as much information, instruction, training, and supervision as they need for this purpose. We also will ensure SFARP there are no risks to health in the use, handling, storage and transportation of articles and substances.

Print Data Solutions also accepts responsibility for the health, safety, and welfare of 'other' people including visitors and contractors who may be affected by the organisation's undertaking.

The allocation of duties for safety matters and the arrangements, which we will make to implement this policy, are set out in the full policy. Health and Safety is seen as a key company issue and will be pro-actively managed as a line management function.

The policy will be kept up to date, particularly as the business changes in nature and size. To ensure this, the policy, and the way in which it has operated will be reviewed every year and ratified by the board.
